Webull and Qantas Points Trade Offer

Terms and Conditions

1. Offer Information

1.1. About Webull Australia

Before you participate in our ‘Webull and Qantas Points Trade Offer’ (the ‘Offer’) these Terms and Conditions must be read and understood in full before participating.

Webull Securities (Australia) Pty Ltd (‘Webull Australia,’ ‘Webull,’ ‘we,’ ‘our’) is a licensed financial services firm regulated by the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (‘ASIC’) and is a Market Participant of the Australian Securities Exchange (‘ASX’) and TMX Australia Exchange (‘TMX’). When we execute international securities on your behalf (e.g. US securities), we use regulated related entities within the Webull Group where relevant.

By participating in this Offer, each Participant is deemed to have read, understood, and agreed to be bound by these terms and any other agreement(s) that you have entered into with Webull Australia.

1.1.1. Webull’s Funds up Front Model

In order to transact through our online trading platform, it is a requirement that all retail clients adhere to our ‘funds up front’ model. This requires our clients to ensure that they have applicable funds deposited in their Webull Australia trading account prior to undertaking any trading.

Webull Australia is not an Authorised Deposit Taking Institution (‘ADI’) – that is a Bank regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (‘APRA’), however, in accordance with our regulatory obligations we maintain client monies separately within a Client Money Trust Account within an ADI appointed by Webull Australia.

1.1.2. Participating in Multiple Marketing Offers

Webull Australia may launch multiple Marketing Offers simultaneously. Each Offer will be subject to the respective Terms and Conditions, as well as any additional Offer Terms and Conditions that we make available to you. Should you participate in one or more of our Offers, it is crucial that you fully understand each relevant Offer’s Terms and Conditions.

In order to participate in this Offer, the following Terms and Conditions must be adhered to accordingly. Participants are required to carefully review all of the Offer Terms and Conditions to avoid unintended disqualification from receiving Qantas Points.

1.2. Definitions

For the Offer Terms and Conditions, the following definitions apply:

| Term Used                              | Definition                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Offer Period                    | means the duration in which the relevant Offer is active and may be amended by Webull Australia from time to time.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| Participant                     | means a client who satisfies all eligibility requirements of the relevant Offer and has fully complied with the relevant Terms and Conditions.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| QFF                             | means the Qantas Frequent Flyer Program.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Webull Brokerage Account        | means an Individual or Complex account opened with Webull Securities (Australia) Pty. Ltd. Complex accounts include Self-Managed Super Fund accounts, Company accounts, and Trust accounts. Eligibility and restrictions on Complex accounts apply. Joint and Crypto accounts are not eligible for this Offer.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| Initial International Buy Trade | means the first buy transaction in international stocks and ETFs (US, HK and China A Shares and ETFs) that are available for trading on the Webull Australia platform after successful account opening. Initial International Buy Trade excludes all other products and asset classes, including but not limited to US options, Australian securities, warrants, cryptocurrencies, corporate actions, dividend reinvestments, rights issues, and any derivative products, unless expressly stated otherwise in the specific Terms and Conditions of a promotion or offer. |
| Eligible International Trade    | means a buy or sell transaction in international stocks and ETFs ( US, HK and China A Shares and ETFs ) that are available for trading on the Webull Australia platform during the Offer Period. Eligible Trades exclude all other products and asset classes, including but not limited to US options, Australian securities, warrants, cryptocurrencies, corporate actions, dividend reinvestments, rights issues, and any derivative products, unless expressly stated otherwise in the specific Terms and Conditions of a promotion or offer.                                              |
| Monthly Cap                     | means the maximum number of Qantas Points that each eligible Participant can earn during any calendar month under this Offer.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |

| Settlement Date                   | means the date relevant monies or shares are settled to the Participant's Webull Brokerage Account for completed trades.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| Trading Value Per Order Threshold | means the minimum trading value per order for international securities that Participants must meet to gain the benefits of each tier when participating in the Trade Offer . Refer to section 1.4.3 for the tiered thresholds.                                                                                                                               |
| Unclaimed Qantas Points           | means Qantas Points that have been earned by Participants who have successfully met the Offer eligibility criteria and conditions and remain eligible (except for the requirement to link their QFF account), but have not yet been credited to their QFF account due to the Participants not having successfully linked their QFF account to their Webull account. |

1.3. Acknowledgement of these Terms and Conditions

By entering into this Offer, you acknowledge that you agree to our relevant Terms and Conditions contained in this document. Participants should link their QFF account promptly upon participation in the Offer to prevent forfeiture of Unclaimed Qantas Points in 'My Rewards'.

1.4. Trade Offer

1.4.1. Offer Period

The Offer will run from 00:00 on 1 October 2026, Sydney local time and may end or vary at any time. Participants will be notified if there are any changes made to the Offer Period.

1.4.2. Offer Eligibility

This Offer is open to all Australian residents and applicable to persons who:

- Are aged 18 years or above.
- Successfully opened or have a Webull Brokerage Account
- Have not previously closed an existing Webull Brokerage Account within the prior 48 months to opening an account; and
- Are not Webull employees, representatives, or agents.

For the avoidance of doubt, any Participant who has previously made any buy or sell transaction in international markets (US, HK and China A Shares, ETFs and US Options) that are available for trading on the Webull Australia platform is not eligible to receive the additional 2,500 bonus Qantas Points. Trades in US options and local Australian markets do not qualify for this Trade Offer and bonus Qantas Points on an Initial International Buy Trade.

Unless otherwise stated, Participants of the Offer may also concurrently take part in other Offers and Promotions organised by Webull Australia subject to meeting relevant Terms and Conditions.

Participants must ensure they take the time to thoroughly review the terms to ensure their eligibility for Qantas Points. When participating in more than one Offer, Participants must be aware that actions taken during one Offer can affect the eligibility of another.

The awarding of Qantas Points under the Offer is restricted to one QFF member who is an individual (natural person). In the instances of a SMSF, Company or Trust account, only the authorised person under each account is eligible to link their QFF account.

If the Participant is acting as a trustee, or director of a corporate trustee, of a self-managed superannuation fund (SMSF), the Participant acknowledges and agrees that:

- Participation in the Offer may give rise to financial, taxation and superannuation law consequences for the Participant's SMSF; and
- The Participant is solely responsible for ensuring that participation in the Offer complies with the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993 (Cth), associated regulations and the Participant's duties as an SMSF trustee.

Exclusion Criteria: A Participant with a Complex account will not be eligible to participate in this Offer if the Participant is not solely responsible for the management, decision-making, or compliance obligations of a Complex account structure (including but not limited to self-managed superannuation funds with multiple trustees or directors, corporate entities with shared directorship and trust structures with shared trustee responsibilities).

1.4.3. Offer Conditions

Earn up to 250 Qantas Points for each Eligible International Trade, capped at a maximum of 5,000 Qantas Points per calendar month per Participant.

Earn an additional 2,500 bonus Qantas Points on Initial International Buy Trade of at least AU$200 or equivalent amount in US, HK or CN currency. For the avoidance of doubt, this excludes any Participant who has previously made any buy or sell transaction in international markets (US, HK and China A Shares, ETFs and US Options) that are available for trading on the Webull Australia platform.

- Participants must link their QFF account to their Webull Brokerage Account within 30 calendar days of the end of a calendar month for trades in that month to be eligible for this Offer.
- Specifically for the additional 2,500 bonus Qantas Points, Participants must link their QFF account to their Webull Brokerage Account within 30 calendar days from the date of trade execution. The 2,500 bonus Qantas Points do not contribute to the Monthly Cap.
- Participants can only earn Qantas Points through Eligible International Trades conducted in the United States, Hong Kong and China markets. Trades in US options and local Australian markets do not qualify for this Trade Offer, including bonus Qantas Points on an Initial International Buy Trade.
- Participants must successfully meet the Trading Value Per Order Thresholds for the corresponding tier in the above markets, set out in the table below. Only individual trade orders valued at AU$200 or more, qualify for this Offer.

| Tiers         | Trading Value Per Order Threshold | Qantas Points     |
|---------------|-----------------------------------|-------------------|
| Tier 1 | A$200.00 - A$999.99      | 10 points  |
| Tier 2 | A$1,000.00 - A$4,999.99  | 50 points  |
| Tier 3 | A$5,000 .00 or above      | 250 points |

Important: All trades made in USD, HKD, or CNY will be converted to AUD using the fixed exchange which is determined by Webull. The fixed exchange rate applicable on the Settlement Date will be used for Qantas Points calculation. The fixed exchange rate is subject to change at Webull's discretion. Participants should verify their trading activity meets the minimum tier thresholds for each currency. The current fixed exchange rate will be published by Webull via the link.

Additional Conditions:

The below additional conditions apply to Trade Offer:

- The total Qantas Points earned from Eligible International Trades each calendar month are calculated on the last day of the calendar month, based on the value of each trade on its respective Settlement Date. Unfilled or cancelled trades will not be included in the calculation.
- Participants engaging in market manipulation will be disqualified from this Offer.
- Participants must maintain market integrity at all times when trading on the Webull Australia platform.
- It is the responsibility of the Participant to ensure that they remain eligible for the Offer. Webull Australia will not provide an automated notification if a Participant becomes ineligible due to any breach of the requirements contained within these terms.

1.4.4. Qantas Points Crediting Process

Upon successful completion of the mandatory conditions outlined above, Participants will receive their Trade Offer Qantas Points credited directly to their linked QFF account within 60 calendar days from the end of each calendar month.

Eligible Participants will receive 2,500 bonus Qantas Points for their Initial International Buy Trade, which will be credited directly to their linked QFF account within 30 calendar days from the date of trade execution.

1.4.5. Notification of Qantas Points

The Participant can obtain a record of Qantas Points credited to their QFF account from Webull Australia within the Webull Australia App using their Webull Brokerage Account login details. The Participant may also refer to the Qantas App for information including the Participant's current Qantas Points balance via the following link: qantas.com/myaccount.

2. Additional Terms

The following clauses apply to this Offer:

- Acceptance of Terms: By Participating in this Offer, Participants are taken as having read, understood and attested to all disclosure documents, including but not limited to, the Standard Client Agreement and Financial Services Guide, provided by Webull Securities (Australia) Pty. Ltd. (ABN: 51 654 849 457, AFSL No. 536980), a private limited company incorporated under the law of New South Wales, licensed and regulated by ASIC.
- Right to Modify or Terminate: Webull Australia reserves the right to change or terminate these terms and conditions at any time without notice.
- Participation Limits: This Offer is limited to one registered natural person participating in the program. Individuals who hold multiple account types are only eligible for Qantas Points being credited to one account only.
- Fraud and Abuse: If the Participant's Webull Brokerage Account shows any sign of fraud including providing falsified information/documentation abuse of the Client Standard Agreement, or suspicious activity, Webull Australia reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to forfeit any rewards claimed via our Offers and limit your opportunity to participate in future promotions of our firm.
- Associated Fees and Transaction Costs: The account holder will be responsible for covering all associated fees incurred with the return of those funds. Webull reserves the right not to remit the funds back to the account holder in order to cover transactional costs.
- Force Majeure and Distribution Limitations: Webull Australia shall endeavour to distribute rewards or Qantas Points promptly, however, Webull Australia cannot guarantee or be responsible for any reward or Qantas Points whose distribution may no longer be possible or may be delayed due to factors beyond our control, including force majeure factors. Webull Australia shall not be responsible for any delays in reward distribution whatsoever, nor shall there be any compensation payable in respect of any such delays or distribution issues.
- Errors or Miscalculations: If Webull Australia become aware of any errors or inaccuracies in the calculation of the average monthly balance on the Participant's Account resulting in the incorrect allocation of Qantas Points, adjustments will be made to correct the amount of Qantas Points credited to QFF account within 30 calendar days. The Participant will be promptly informed of such corrections.
- Missing or Incorrect Qantas Points: If a Participant believes there is an issue with the Qantas Points earned on their Webull Brokerage Account, contact Webull Australia through the Webull app, email or phone. We will investigate your complaint and provide you with our decision.
- Unlinking your QFF or Webull Account: A Participant can unlink their QFF account from their Webull Brokerage Account at any time through the Webull app. A Participant will only earn Qantas Points if their Webull Brokerage Account is linked to their QFF Account. If a Participant closes their Webull Brokerage Account or unlinks their QFF account, the Participant will not earn Qantas Points anymore.
- Privacy and Participant Information: The Participant acknowledges and authorises Webull Australia and Qantas to exchange the Participant's personal information (ordinarily being the Participant's name and QFF number) to facilitate the fulfilment of Qantas Points. In some instances, additional information including the Participant's email address, and Webull Account details may be required. The Participant's personal information will be handled in accordance with the following:

- Webull Privacy Statement
- Qantas Privacy and security - Privacy Policy
- Necessity of Information Exchange: The Participant acknowledges that the exchange of this information is necessary and will be limited to the extent required to ensure that the Participant can earn Qantas Points under and subject to these Terms and Conditions.
- Qantas Frequent Flyer Program Rules: The earning and redemption of Qantas Points are subject to the QFF Program Terms and Conditions that Qantas may vary from time to time.
- Non-Transferability of Points: Qantas Points are not transferable, other than in accordance with the QFF Program Terms and Conditions.
- No Cash Redemption: Qantas Points are not redeemable for cash.
- Independent Assessment of Risk: All investors should independently consider if the relevant investment products are suitable for their own risk appetite. If they are uncertain of the investment products suitable for them, Investors should seek advice from a professional financial adviser.
- Not Financial Advice: This Offer is not a recommendation. Any rewards or Qantas Points received via this Offer do not constitute an invitation, inducement, recommendation, suggestion, or solicitation to invest. This Offer is not financial advice. For the avoidance of doubt, Webull Australia is not providing personal financial product advice via this Offer.
- Past Performance not Indicative: Past performance of any investment product is not indicative of future performance. The value of the investment products and the income from them may fluctuate periodically. Investing contains risks and investors may lose all their investments.
- Finality of Decisions: Webull Australia's decision on all matters relating to this Offer will be at its absolute discretion and will be final and binding on all Participants. No correspondence and/or requests to retract and/or modify any such decisions shall be considered.
- Limitation of Liability: Webull Australia, its affiliates, its and their respective employees, directors, officers, representatives, and agents shall not be liable to any person for any loss, damage, injury, costs, or expenses incurred, suffered, borne, or arising from this Offer.
- Accuracy of Account Information: Participants are responsible for ensuring their QFF account details are accurate and up to date.
- No Liability for Account Errors: Webull Australia is not liable for delays in Qantas Points crediting due to incorrect QFF account information.
- Governing Law and Jurisdiction: These Terms and Conditions are governed by and interpreted according to the laws of New South Wales and the Participants in this Offer agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts of New South Wales.
- Exclusion Of Third-Party Rights: Except as otherwise expressly provided, no person who is not a party to this Agreement shall be entitled to enforce any terms of this Agreement.
- English Version Shall Prevail: The advertisement or Offer content may be translated into other languages. This English version shall be referred to where such a translation is made.

Should there be any discrepancies between the English version and any version of the content in another language, the English version shall prevail.
